

Do you dream of helping others become the very best hair extension artist they can be, by sharing your passion and knowledge of the category? If the answer is YES, then education is the right path for you!

Babe Hair Extensions is looking for educators in your area, and the process couldn't be easier!

Not only will you be trained as an educator for the #1 Professional Only brand of hair extensions in North America, you will be exposed to advanced education opportunities to help you grow your career as an educator, and professional stylist.

What Are The Requirements To Become An Educator?

1. Submit a resume of your extension experience
2. Become certified in all 4 methods of extensions that Babe offers by watching the online education videos
3. Submit a photo of each application type on a mannequin or model
4. Do a short video presentation of yourself teaching
5. Attend a 2 Day Babe educator training

Next Training Seminar is scheduled for April 22nd- April 24th in Nashville Tennessee. All requirements must be completed by March 31st in order to receive an invitation to attend the seminar.

Submit your resume to margo@babehairextensions.com and your distributor to get started!
